Hon. Walter Q. Gresham,
Secretary of State,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-- Enclosed I hand you money order for One Dollar in payment of pass-port to be executed for Mr. Falk Trieber; pass-port to be sent to Mr. Morris Trieber, 25 S. Compton Ave. this City.

On the 20th. inst. I sent you a letter enclosing application for pass-port for said Falk Trieber, verified by affidavit, together with certified copy of naturalization as an American citizen, and also One Dollar in currency in payment of the required fee. This morning Mr. Morris Trieber received a blank containing general instructions in regard to pass-port, with these words endorsed at the foot of the instrument: " No fee came with application of Falk Trieber for a pass-port ". (Signed) " Pass-port Clerk. "

The One Dollar in currency was beyond any doubt enclosed in my said letter of the 20th. inst. and must have been abstracted either before it reached your Department, or after having reached it. I have made complaint at the post office, this City, and they say that they can make no effort to ascertain how the loss came about unless the envelope containing the above mentioned papers and said One Dollar, originally enclosed, is given to them. The envelope is one just like the one which encloses this letter and if that first envelope can be found. I would ~~feel~~ ~~very~~ ~~much~~ ~~obliged~~ ~~to~~ ~~you~~ if you would send same to me, so that I can turn it over to the post office here. My object in going to this trouble is to have the guilty person located if possible.

My attention was attracted to the fact that in the said blank containing instructions which I received this morning, in paragraph providing how the requisite One Dollar should be remitted, the words "postal money order" are stricken out in blue lead pencil. My attention was drawn to the paragraph by vertical red lines on either side of it. Why these words should be stricken out when I am informed at the post office it is a common custom to remit in that way, and the words "postal note" are left standing, I cannot understand; the latter being made payable to bearer, and the former to person named in the order.

The original papers sent to your Department on the 20th. inst. seem to have been retained as they were not returned.

Very respectfully,

Montague Bunch,
